Every statement uttered by a law professor or written in a learned
treatise about what the law is or what the law requires is always
followed by an invisible,
gigantic asterisk ...

The asterisk says, “Unless the court
wanders off the trail
and does something else.”

Does this happen?

Unless the court wanders
off the trail and does
something else.

Does this
happen?

Unless the court wanders
off the trail and does
something else.

Yes, it does.

*Where did it
happen
according to today's reading?*

Unless the court wanders
off the trail and does
something else.
