

Fourth Mini-Conference on Coronavirus and Law

University of Oklahoma College of Law
April 20, 2020

Organized by:
Prof. Eric E. Johnson
Associate Professor of Law
Univ. of Oklahoma College of Law
E-mail: eric.e.johnson@ou.edu
Web: ericejohnson.com
Blog: lawgarithmic.com

As of April 14, 2020

Program

http://ericejohnson.com/projects/coronavirus\_and\_law/

Presenter Information

Each presenter will have up to 10 minutes, plus five minutes of questions and feedback.

After the mini-conference, presenters are asked – but not required – to write a short guest blog post regarding the subject of their presentation for non-exclusive posting on lawgarithmic.com.

For logon/password information, please look for an e-mail with “Zoom” and “password” in the subject line.

Schedule

(all times are Central Daylight Time)

2:00 p.m.

Eric E. Johnson, Associate Professor of Law, University of Oklahoma College of Law

Introduction

2:10 p.m.

Jorge L. Contreras, Professor, S.J. Quinney College of Law, University of Utah

discussing patent pledges to combat COVID-19

2:25 p.m.

Alan Z. Rozenshtein, Associate Professor of Law, University of Minnesota Law School

"Disease Surveillance and the Fourth Amendment"

2:40 p.m.

John G. Culhane, Professor, H. Albert Young Fellow in Constitutional Law, Co-Director of the Family Health Law & Policy Institute, Delaware Law School, Widener University

discussing civil liability for the transmission of COVID-19

Program – Mini-Conference on Coronavirus and Law

2:55 p.m.

Medha D. Makhoulf, Assistant Professor of Law, Founding Director of the Medical-Legal Partnership Clinic, Penn State Dickinson Law School; Assistant Professor, Department of Public Health Sciences, Penn State College of Medicine

discussing the public health consequences of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's new public charge policy for noncitizens

3:20 p.m.

Nicolas P. Terry, Hall Render Professor of Law & Executive Director, Hall Center for Law and Health, Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law

"COVID-19 and Healthcare Lessons Already Learned"

3:25 p.m.

Open discussion

4:00 p.m.

END

Thank you!
Please stay well!