

Fifth Mini-Conference on Coronavirus and Law

University of Oklahoma College of Law
April 24, 2020

Organized by:
Prof. Eric E. Johnson
Associate Professor of Law
Univ. of Oklahoma College of Law
E-mail: eric.e.johnson@ou.edu
Web: ericejohnson.com
Blog: lawgarithmic.com

April 24, 2020

Program

http://ericejohnson.com/projects/coronavirus_and_law/

Presenter Information

Each presenter will have up to 10 minutes, plus five minutes of questions and feedback.

After the mini-conference, presenters are asked – but not required – to write a short guest blog post regarding the subject of their presentation for non-exclusive posting on lawgarithmic.com.

For logon/password information, please look for an e-mail with “Selection for and invitation to Fifth Mini-Conference on Coronavirus and Law” in the subject line.

Schedule

(all times are Central Daylight Time)

2:00 p.m.

Eric E. Johnson, Associate Professor of Law, University of Oklahoma College of Law

Introduction

2:10 p.m.

David Zaring, Professor of Legal Studies, The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania

"The Government's Response to the Coronavirus Crisis"

2:25 p.m.

Joseph Baar Topinka, Assistant Professor of Practice, Texas State University School of Health Administration

"Quarantine and Isolation Tension Between State and Federal Laws"

2:40 p.m.

Tracy L. M. Norton, Associate Professor of Legal Process, Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center discussing alternative ways to advocate for defendants in speedy trial motions when the courts are shut down

Program – Mini-Conference on Coronavirus and Law

2:55 p.m.

Lucy Johnston-Walsh, Professor of Clinical Law and Director, Children's Advocacy Clinic and Center on Children and the Law, Penn State University - Dickinson Law

"COVID-19's Impact on the Legal Rights of Youth in the Foster Care System"

3:10 p.m.

Kathleen Bergin, JD, LLM, The Disaster Law Project; Adjunct Professor of Law, Cornell Law School

"Pushing Executive Boundaries in the Age of Coronavirus"

3:25 p.m.

Open discussion

4:00 p.m.

END

Thank you!
Please stay well!